

APEX COMPRESSION

Rotating Problems Into Solutions

Contract compression services with APEX will give you more flexibility in budget forecasting of your overall compression operating expense. APEX experienced team can assist with unit installation, day-to-day operation, after market maintenance and services available to handle it all for you.

CONTRACT COMPRESSION SERVICE ITEMS:

- 97% Mechanical Availability
 - Runtime percentage and reports calculated quarterly will be provided to the customer.
- 24/7 Unit Monitoring and Engine/Compressor Data
 - Smart control panel available for customer to view operation status.
 - Mechanics receive immediate notification with fault code if service is interrupted.
 - 24-hour customer support and answering service for assistance.
- Estimated Response Time for First Call
 - All customer sites will be reviewed prior to contract paperwork being executed.
 - Not including inclement weather events and unplanned customer operation shutdowns out of APEX or customer control that may cause slight delays.
- Parts Inventory and Replacements
 - All wear parts and daily consumables are included.
 - Parts inventory located at site in unit box, nearby conex or at strategic facilities.
 - All day tanks, containment, and deliveries will be handled by 3rd Party.
- Scheduled Preventative Maintenance
 - Maintenance schedule will be coordinated with customer prior to unit shut down.
 - Service will be done per compressor and engine manufacturer recommendations.
 - Complete flange to flange responsibility, reducing customer risk.
 - Quarterly emissions pre-testing to ensure unit follows any State and Federal standards or requirements.

APEX Compression has a culture focused on “Safety First” with benchmarks and training protocols that are tailored and designed to ensure everyone makes it home safe day in and day out.

We are backed by a team of experienced technicians that deliver reliability, flexibility, and accountability. We can also offer fair, flexible contract options and terms including competitively priced rates.

At APEX, we want to assist in any way, whether it is to maintain your company owned compression equipment or through our own rental compression fleet. APEX Compression natural gas compression solutions allow our customer the ability to free up capital and invest in exploration and production operations that will continue to grow your business and bolster your bottom line.

Base Case Operating Conditions:

- Two and three-stage compressor applications.
- Single-well gas lift compressors up to large gathering compression systems focusing on both midstream and centralized gas lift applications.

Unit Standards:

- APEX Compression packages are readily available for service, make-ready timing and availability will be determined prior to receipt of signed contract.
- We will utilize the ideal compressor packages for your specific compression needs.
- Packaging standards
 - Caterpillar and Waukesha Engine Drivers
 - Ariel and Gemini (GE) Compressor Frames
 - Air-X-Changers/Chart Gas Coolers
 - Upgraded Panel to allow smart control
 - On-skid recycle
 - Emissions monitoring
 - Customer modifications and engineering services

With more than five decades in the industry, our team is experienced and dedicated in contract compression equipment rental and services and the team has consistently proven to be a leader in presenting solutions and delivering results.

Scan to learn more about APEX